Parish News

We enter today into the final week of Advent as we draw closer to the great feast of Christmas. During this sacred season, we have been watching and waiting for the Lord and striving to make our hearts more worthy dwelling places for Him. I hope that we can renew those efforts during the days ahead, so that none of the other activities belonging to this time of year—as wonderful as they may be—will distract our minds and hearts from our central focus: the God who became man in Jesus Christ and who lives and walks with us through every moment of our lives. Let's pray that we will always have room for Him in our hearts as He draws near to us day in and day out, most especially in the Blessed Sacrament, so that the mystery of His Incarnation may continue to fill us with His peace and joy.
