Parish News

Continuing her celebration of Easter, the Church observes this day as Divine Mercy Sunday. The Divine Mercy devotion was first promoted by Saint Faustina in the 1930s and the Second Sunday of Easter was designated as the Sunday of Divine Mercy by Pope St. John Paul II in the year 2000. So, in terms of the life of the Church, this celebration is still practically brand new. But, at the same time, God's mercy lies at the very heart of the Easter mystery. St. John Paul II said in a homily that God's mercy "is the Easter gift that the Church receives from the Risen Christ and offers to humanity." In the Resurrection of Christ, the mercy of God has proven itself stronger than even the worst of human sin.

And we're able to take part in that victory of life over death, mercy over sin, in our own lives still today. We experience it especially in the sacrament of confession, in which God's mercy continues to triumph over our sins and swallow them up in the greatness of His love. We experience it in the grace that He gives us in the Eucharist, which enables us to rise above our weaknesses and live a new life of holiness and faith. As we continue to celebrate the Good News of the Lord's Resurrection, let's renew our trust in His mercy and allow it to continue to raise us up more and more into God's own life.
