Parish News

“Do not be afraid; for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for He has risen, as He said” (Mt 28: 5-6). With these glorious words spoken by an angel, the end of the dark night of sin and death is announced and the dawn of God’s new day for mankind is heralded. The old creation has been made new in the perfect love and obedience of Christ. In Him our humanity has at last responded to God’s love with our own.

As the angel said, we need not be afraid ever again, because we live now a new life, a life stronger than the power of sin and death and darkness, because it is a share in the very life of God. In the light of Easter, we know at last that God can forgive every sin, overcome every distance, and restore all that has been lost.

Nothing can diminish the good news of this day: We are a new creation; we live a new life. The light of the new day of Easter is meant to shine always in all of us, no matter our circumstances. As we celebrate today the Lord’s Resurrection, let us pray that we may live every day in the light of Easter and proclaim the glorious news of Christ’s victory over sin and death in all that we say and do.

We share in that new life of grace most powerfully through the sacraments. This Easter, we celebrate with a special joy for the four young people who began that new life and became a new creation here at the Easter Vigil through baptism, confirmation, and the Holy Eucharist. Congratulations and welcome to Bentley Bertsch, Bronson Bertsch, Andrea Blenke DeJesus, and Alexis Wagner! May the joy of the Resurrection be alive in their hearts, so that they may be witnesses to Christ before all.

The joy of the Resurrection renews all creation! May it renew each one of us too and help us to live always as children of God. I pray that all of you and your families and friends will enjoy a very happy and very blessed Easter.

Fr. Stenger

Walking with Purpose

Women of the Parish: Are you seeking authentic connections with other women? An opportunity to refuel and refresh while deepening your faith? Beginning Saturday, April 6th, at 10 a.m. in the Parish Office we will be starting a brief but powerful 6-week Bible Study using content published by Walking with Purpose.

Whether you are interested in participating in a reoccurring Women's Bible Study or an occasional Fellowship Event, please contact Sarah Willett at (859) 653-6330 to stay in the loop!

This year's theme is "Zeal for your house will consume me" (John 2:17). As blessed people who have been the recipients of God's love and mercy, we can share what we've been given. Christ's teachings call us to share our material blessings with others. Through a pledge to the DPAA, you have the opportunity to fulfill Christ's command. Thank you to those who have already contributed to this year's DPAA goal of $51,800! The funds raised above that goal will be returned to our parish to help pay for the recent painting and repairs done in the cafeteria and kitchen in the school. If you haven't given yet, there are envelopes in the back of the church or you can visit the parish website to give online.

Help Wanted

Have you been pondering how you can be of service at our church, but just aren't sure where to start? Volunteer at weekend Masses by joining our ministry schedule! We could use ushers, servers, and lectors for all Masses. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact the parish office to find out more!

Thank You

Thanks to all who donated for the Easter flowers in church! Your generosity every year helps us to celebrate the Lord's Resurrection with greater beauty and solemnity.

St. Vincent de Paul Update

Thank you for donating to our SVdP conference this past month. Your monetary donation allows us to fulfill client requests for money to help cover their utility bills and is also used to purchase food to give to those in need.

We will continue to accept monetary donations, and this month, we are also requesting a few cleaning supplies as well. If you are able to donate laundry detergent, dish detergent, or toilet cleaner, it would be greatly appreciated. Please place these items in the baskets in the vestibule of church. For all monetary donations, please make your checks out to the parish. Thank you!

Family Promise

Thanks to everyone who volunteered last week. Our next date to volunteer is April 30. Please contact Ann Fay at annrfay@gmail.com if you would like to help out.
