Parish News

“Do not be afraid; for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for He has risen, as He said” (Mt 28: 5-6). With these glorious words spoken by an angel, the end of the dark night of sin and death is announced and the dawn of God’s new day for mankind is heralded. The old creation has been made new in the perfect love and obedience of Christ. In Him our humanity has at last responded to God’s love with our own.

As the angel said, we need not be afraid ever again, because we live now a new life, a life stronger than the power of sin and death and darkness, because it is a share in the very life of God. In the light of Easter, we know at last that God can forgive every sin, overcome every distance, and restore all that has been lost.

Nothing can diminish the good news of this day: We are a new creation; we live a new life. The light of the new day of Easter is meant to shine always in all of us, no matter our circumstances. As we celebrate today the Lord’s Resurrection, let us pray that we may live every day in the light of Easter and proclaim the glorious news of Christ’s victory over sin and death in all that we say and do.

The joy of the Resurrection renews all creation! May it renew each one of us too and help us to live always as children of God. I pray that all of you and your families and friends will enjoy a very happy and very blessed Easter.

Fr. Stenger
