Parish News

We find ourselves in these days quickly approaching the end of the Church's liturgical year. Next Sunday we'll celebrate the feast of Christ the King, and then the new Church year begins the following Sunday with the First Sunday of Advent. And so, as we close out the year, it's very fitting that we hear in our Gospel reading this Sunday the Lord's words about the end of time. He says, "The days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down." These words are sobering, but they shouldn't be cause for fear or anxiety. Instead, they should challenge us to take an honest look at our priorities and values and choices. When we're told that this world is passing away, the question should arise: "Well, how much of my time and energy and resources are being invested in those things that pass away, rather than in the things that endure for eternity?" Let's pray that these days that call to mind the coming of Christ may help to shake us out of our complacency with the ways of the world, so that we may live more and more as citizens of His Kingdom without end.

Fr. Stenger

St. Vincent de Paul

Our parish has officially started its own St. Vincent de Paul Conference with the very recent election of Conference officers! We can now begin to embrace the essential elements of SPIRITUALITY, FRIENDSHIP, and SERVICE that the Society offers to members on their journey, as we join 29 other parish conferences in the Diocese of Covington.

Let's extend our thanks to the following:

Tim McGrath, Conference President
Steve Fay, Conference Vice-President
Don Heeb, Conference Treasurer
Fr. Ryan Stenger, Spiritual Advisor
Megan Heeb, Assistant Spiritual Advisor
Regina Murphy, Conference Secretary

PLEASE JOIN US AT THE NEXT MEETING ON THURSDAY NOVEMBER 17 at 7:00 p.m. as we set in place plans for serving our neighbors through the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. At this early stage we are already exploring opening a SVDP pantry on parish grounds, visiting the elderly at The Seasons of Alexandria, and starting our own "home visits" to those in our parish area needing help in a crisis. ALL are welcome!

A special collection for this new effort will be taken up at our Thanksgiving Mass on November 24th at 9:00 a.m. Please consider supporting our new parish ministry as a way of giving thanks for your own blessings.

Finally, in this season of thanks, we also thank Fr. Ryan for his support in welcoming St. Vincent de Paul to our parish!

DPAA Update

As of September 30, our parish has received pledges of $56,185 to the 2022 DPAA. This puts us over our goal by $18,985. Thank you to all who have supported this important annual campaign! Remember: 100% of the funds raised above our goal are returned back to our parish. This year's DPAA rebate is helping to offset the repairs to our parking lot. You can still contribute to this year's campaign by using the envelopes in the vestibule of the church. Thank you for your generosity!
