Parish News

In our Gospel reading at Mass this Sunday, we hear that the disciples who encountered the Risen Lord on the road to Emmaus returned to the Apostles and recounted “how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread.” These two disciples had walked and talked with the Risen Christ for some time without realizing who He was. It was not until this moment that they knew they were with Jesus: “And it happened that, while He was with them at table, He took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized Him, but He vanished from their sight” (Luke 24: 30-31). Still today, this is precisely how He makes Himself present to us. In the Eucharist the Risen Lord continues to stay with us and share our journey. He comes to us along the roadways of our lives and leads us out of darkness into the light of His life and love. As we continue to celebrate the good news of His Resurrection, let’s stay close to Him in the Eucharist, so that He might continue to give us His peace.
