Parish News

In our Gospel reading this Sunday, the Lord compares the Kingdom of Heaven to a treasure buried in a field and a pearl of great price. In both cases, the one who discovers it sells all that he has in order to obtain it. The point of the parables is that we should invest ourselves totally in our relationship with God, that we should make His Kingdom the decisive priority and goal of our lives. Unfortunately, the story of our lives is that we can so often become consumed with lesser things that we miss out on the great joy that He offers us. Let's pray this week for an openness to the Lord's gifts in our lives and a greater faith that the happiness He offers far surpasses any that we could create apart from Him.
