Parish News

In the Gospel reading at Mass last Sunday, we heard St. Peter's great confession of faith: "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God." This Sunday, we hear about the events that immediately followed that moment. The Lord explains to His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem to suffer and die, and then be raised on the third day. Peter pulls Him aside and says, "God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you." How quickly things change! How quickly Peter falls from His great insight into the Lord's identity and mission to this attempt at telling God who He should be and how He should act.

How often do we do the same? How often do our good intentions give way to attempts at limiting the Lord by telling Him where He's allowed to lead us and how He's allowed to change us? Like Peter, we all at times can be far too prone to think as men do, rather than as God does. But for God all things are possible. When we truly allow Him to lead us, when we get behind Him and follow Him, He will bring us to heights of happiness that we could never imagine on our own. Let's pray for the faith to set aside our all-too-human attempts at restricting God with our fears and doubts, and instead follow Him unreservedly to the new life that He desires to share with all of us.

Bible Study Workshops

The Office of Catechesis and Evangelization is announcing the following workshops presented by Father Timothy P. Schehr.

Workshop on the Prophet Isaiah – Sept. 23, 2023, 9:00 am – 11:30 am

Children have a very special place in the oracles of the prophet Isaiah. We are all familiar with the famous Emmanuel prophecy in his book. But this is just one of many passages featuring children. For this reason, Isaiah is our Advent prophet. Let's spend some time enjoying his wonderful message.

Workshop on the Prophet Jeremiah – Oct. 28, 2023, 9:00 am – 11:30 am

We can think of Jeremiah as a potter prophet. When called to serve as a prophet, Jeremiah was entrusted with the word of God to build up the people, just as an artisan builds up a clump of clay on a potter's wheel. Let's read his book to discover how well the finished product turns out.

Everyone is welcome to attend! The cost for the workshop is $35. To register visit <https://covdio.org/bible-workshops/> or call Isaak A. Isaak, Office of Catechesis and Evangelization, at 859-392-1529. Walk-ins welcome!

The workshops will be held in Bishop Howard Memorial Auditorium (Curia building), 1125 Madison Ave. Covington, KY 41011.
