Parish News

It might be hard to believe, but we only have about a week and a half left until the beginning of Lent! Ash Wednesday will be on February 22 this year, with our parish Masses at 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. that day. As in years past, I'll lead the Stations of the Cross on the Mondays of Lent beginning at 7:30 p.m. and hear confessions afterwards for as long as there's a line.

As you know, Lent is an opportunity for us to deepen our relationship with the Lord through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving as we approach the celebration of His Resurrection at Easter. I encourage you to begin thinking and praying now about the ways that Christ might be calling you to deepen your friendship with Him this Lent. What will that look like in our lives this Lent? What will we do differently in order to grow closer to God?

I know we've still got a few days between now and Ash Wednesday, but I think it's good for us to begin preparing now, so that this precious opportunity doesn't pass us by.

Fr. Stenger

- toothpaste
- toothbrushes
- toilet paper
- deodorant
- hand soap

Please check expiration dates on items donated. We will collect the items in the laundry baskets in the back of church. If you have any questions, please contact Wanda Sendelbach or Ann Fay. Thank you for your generosity!

Lenten Fish Fry

Lent is almost here and that means fish fries are coming too! Once again, our fish fries will run from 4 to 7:30 p.m. on the Fridays of Lent, beginning February 24 and ending March 31.

The Lenten Fish Fry is by far the biggest fundraising event for our parish. It's such a great success because of the hard work of our parishioners! And you can help in several important ways:

- WORK – We'll need our great volunteers to help in the kitchen, parking lot, and classrooms, by running food to customers, by answering phones and taking orders, and by cleaning up at the end of the night. All parishioners are welcome and new faces are always very welcome!
- DESSERTS – People always love our homemade desserts, so please drop off those pies, cakes, and cookies that we're famous for!
- SPREAD THE WORD – Be sure to invite your family, friends, neighbors, co-workers, classmates, and even strangers! One great way that you can do that is by liking and sharing the post on our parish Facebook page.

Faith Enrichment

The next meeting of our Faith Enrichment group will be this Wednesday, February 15th, after the 7:00 pm Mass in the Parish Office. We will be watching season 1, episode 6 of The Chosen.

Sewing Seeds Sewing Group: Our next sewing day is planned for Wednesday, February 15, from 9:30 to 11:30 in the cafeteria. Join us for service and fellowship. Even if you don't sew we'll find a task for you.
