Parish News

This Sunday we celebrate the feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. The Gospel reading tells us about this event, when Jesus led Peter, James, and John to a mountaintop and revealed to them a vision of His glory, which is usually hidden from our eyes. The Lord did this in order to strengthen the Apostles for the trials that lay ahead, so that in their moments of fear and doubt they might remember this brief glimpse of the power and majesty of God and be strengthened to persevere in their faith. And today's feast is meant to serve the same purpose for us. In the moments of our lives when we're called to carry the Cross, we can turn our minds and hearts to the beauty of the Transfigured Christ and remember that the glory revealed in Him is our destiny too, that we are called to share His life and see Him face-to-face for all eternity. Let's pray that we might never lose sight of that, so that we can walk with Christ faithfully in this life and one day say with St. Peter in God's Kingdom, "Lord, it is good that we are here."

Mater Filius Missionaries Wanted

We are seeking three young adult women to fill three missionary spots. They will live and work alongside the mothers in our home for a year of service. It is vital to create space for young people to lead and take active roles within the Pro-Life movement. Our missionaries will serve as a symbol of hope for future generations and will be beacons of love in our home as they walk alongside MFQC moms. We are looking forward to the ways in which these young women will elevate our mission and serve as the hands and feet of Christ in the Mater Filius Queen City home. For more
