Parish News

St. James writes in our second reading this Sunday: “Be doers of the Word and not hearers only.” The failure to be “doers of the Word” is precisely the hypocrisy condemned by the Lord in the Gospel reading when He bemoans that “this people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.” It can be too easy to listen to God’s Word and profess our belief in it, but then not actually live accordingly. If we were to profess our love for a person, but then not actually show that love in our choices and actions, then our love would rightly be called superficial or false. And it’s no different in our relationship with God. If we love Him, then we’ll try our best to show that in the way we live. So, let’s pray this Sunday that our love for God and His Word might not simply be a passive feeling that doesn’t move us and change us, but that instead His Word might be alive and active in our minds and hearts, so that we might honor the Lord in all that we do.

Fr. Stenger
