Parish News

Today, the fourth Sunday of Easter, is traditionally known as Good Shepherd Sunday, because the Gospel reading today is always taken from the tenth chapter of John's Gospel, in which Jesus describes Himself as the Good Shepherd, who gathers and protects and lays down His life for His sheep. Some of the earliest artistic depictions of the Lord are those that show Him as the Good Shepherd; this is an image of Christ that's resonated with the hearts of Christians since the beginning.

And our Gospel reading this Sunday helps us to see why that is. The Lord says, "I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me." God is not distant and abstract, nor is He indifferent to us and our needs. We are His. He knows us, is personally invested in us, loves us, and is willing even to die for us. He is our Good Shepherd, who Himself leads us to eternal pastures in His Kingdom.

Because of today's association with the image of Christ the Good Shepherd, this Sunday is also the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Let's pray today that the Lord will continue to call men from our parish and diocese to serve Him as priests, to become good shepherds after the pattern of Christ by knowing, loving, and sacrificing for the flock entrusted to them by God.

This year's theme is "Zeal for your house will consume me" (John 2:17). As blessed people who have been the recipients of God's love and mercy, we can share what we've been given. Christ's teachings call us to share our material blessings with others. Through a pledge to the DPAA, you have the opportunity to fulfill Christ's command. Thank you to those who have already contributed to this year's DPAA goal of $51,800! The funds raised above that goal will be returned to our parish to help pay for the recent painting and repairs done in the cafeteria and kitchen in the school. If you haven't given yet, there are envelopes in the back of the church or you can visit the parish website to give online.

St. Vincent de Paul Update

We were able to help 14 families during the first quarter of the year. Your monetary donations provide a way for these families to pay for their utility bills, provide shelf stable food for the clients, and help us purchase Kroger gift cards to buy perishable food items and gasoline. Clients can also receive vouchers for clothing and furniture through the St. Vincent de Paul store in Cold Spring, so if you have gently used items that you no longer need, please consider donating to the store. Thank you for your continued support!

The Faith Enrichment group will be meeting in the parish office on Wednesday, May 15th after the 7:00 Mass. We will be watching the first part of a movie on Formed entitled Karol: A Man Who Became Pope. All are welcome to join. Light refreshments will be served.
