Parish News

This coming week, on November 1st, we celebrate All Saints Day, which is a holy day of obligation. On the Solemnity of All Saints, we celebrate not only the saints officially recognized by the Church, but also all the faithful from every time and place who carried out God's will on earth and live with Him now in Heaven. In a homily for All Saints Day, Pope Benedict XVI explained the meaning of the feast day in this way: "This, then, is the meaning of today's Solemnity: looking at the shining example of the Saints to reawaken within us the great longing to be like them; happy to live near God, in His light, in the great family of God's friends. Being a Saint means living close to God, to live in His family. And this is the vocation of us all, vigorously reaffirmed by the Second Vatican Council and solemnly proposed today for our attention." What we celebrate on All Saints Day is the vocation of every member of the Church: to become a saint, to share God's life. So, as we approach this important feast, let's thank God for all His saints, especially those who are closest to us, who are great examples of holiness and powerful friends who support us with their prayers as we follow Christ.

Seminarian Education Fund Collection

A vocation to the priesthood is an answer to Jesus' call to participate in His work. The Diocese of Covington has been blessed to have a number of men who have responded to that call. These men will need the love and support of the community to complete their journey. Estimated diocesan cost for providing our seminarians with tuition, books, room and board, health insurance, living allowances, and retreats for the coming year will amount to more than $58,000 per seminarian. You can help by making a contribution to the Seminarian Education Fund this weekend. Please pray daily for our seminarians and for an increase in vocations to the priesthood.

Family Promise

Our next date to volunteer is November 7th. If you would like to help with the meal, please contact Ann Fay as soon as possible!

Sewing Seeds Sewing Group

The Sewing Seeds Sewing Group will meet on Wednesday November 15th, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the cafeteria. We will be working on baby blankets. Join us for service and fellowship. Everyone is welcome.

St. Vincent de Paul Update

Our SVdP conference meets monthly on the second Thursday at 7 p.m. New members are welcome!

We have had few requests for assistance in our area, so we have been assisting other SVdP conferences by giving money to help meet their clients' needs. We are planning to help an unserved area in Newport when the need arises. We have donated some of the food from our pantry to the pantry in Cold Spring to avoid expiration of the items.

Members have been visiting parishioners at The Seasons and some who are homebound. We will be assisting with the coat drive this fall, so look for the barrel if you would like to donate. There will also be an opportunity to make a monetary donation on Thanksgiving.

If you have any questions, please contact Tim McGrath, Steve Fay, or the parish office.

Church Directory

We are in need of photos from church festivals, fish fries, baptisms, weddings, or anything else that our church hosts or participates in throughout the year. Please email the photos to the parish office for use in the directory.

Thank you to our wonderful volunteers who helped with photo sessions this past week! We really appreciate the time you offered to make sure things ran smoothly. We will need a few more volunteers for November 21st. If you are available to help even just for a couple of hours, please contact the parish office.

DPAA 2023 – September Update

As of the end of August we have received $55,890.00 in commitments to this year's DPAA, which puts us over our goal! Our rebate for this year's appeal will go towards offsetting the cost of a new church steeple. Thank you for your generous response to this year's Diocesan Parish Annual Appeal!

Job Opportunity

The Diocese of Covington invites qualified Catholic candidates to apply for a full time Curia staff opportunity. The Digital Content and Multi-Media Specialist will provide dynamic content for all diocesan media channels, digital, print, and otherwise. This individual will constantly develop, create, pursue, and acquire interesting and engaging content in support of diocesan mission priorities, for distribution via multiple communication formats, including, but not limited to, diocesan social media, email, video and audio, and the weekly print newspaper, the Messenger. We prefer at least a (non-specific) undergraduate degree, and previous successful work experience in communications. Strong writing skills are a must, and an understanding of the law as it applies to intellectual property and media in general would be helpful. Interested candidates can submit a comprehensive resume, along with compensation history and references including contact email addresses, to Stephen Kopyay, SPHR by email or by fax: skopyay@covdio.org or (859) 392-1589.

31st Annual Eighth Grade Pro-Life Essay Contest

The Diocesan Pro-Life Office and the Department of Catholic Schools are pleased to sponsor the 8th Grade Pro-Life Essay Contest. The essay contest is open to all 8th graders in the Diocese of Covington. This is a great opportunity to nurture our students on their belief in the Church's teaching on the sanctity of all human life, as well as inspire them to live out their faith. We hope you will encourage all your students to participate in this important phase of their Catholic education. For more information on the essay contest, please our website www.covdio.org/pro-life
