Parish News

Next weekend will be the annual collection for the Seminarian Education Fund. This annual diocesan collection helps to support the formation and education of our future priests. These men are willing to spend their lives in service to the Lord and to us, so I hope that we can be generous in showing them our support and gratitude next weekend. You should have an envelope for this collection that you can drop in the basket at the usual time—or you can just use an envelope of your own and write “Seminarian Education Fund” on the outside. Thank you for your support of our seminarians!
