Parish News

Thank you to all who have made a pledge to this year's Diocesan Parish Annual Appeal! As you can read further in the bulletin this week, we have already raised $66,295 as of the end of June—well beyond our goal of $57,600. Your response to this appeal year after year is both impressive and inspiring. Thank you for so generously and faithfully responding to the call to support our parish and our diocese.

Since we've met our goal, 100% of the funds that we raise above that goal will be returned to our parish without any diocesan assessment. We can continue to donate to the appeal until the end of the year, so if you haven't given yet, or if you find yourself in a position to give more, please consider doing so. Giving to the annual appeal is one of the best ways that we can support our parish financially. You can use one of the envelopes in the back of church or visit the parish website and follow the instructions on the homepage to make a gift.

Thank you once again for your generous response to this year's campaign. Your dedication to our parish is a testament to your faith and I'm very grateful for that witness.

Fr. Stenger

ACUE Collection

This weekend we will take up a collection for the Alliance for Catholic Urban Education. The Catholic schools of the Diocese of Covington are committed to offering our children a quality education founded on Gospel values while promoting academic excellence and creative thinking in a safe and nurturing environment. When the time comes to step out beyond the doors of our schools, our hope is to have instilled in each student the ability and determination to be spiritually, intellectually, physically, morally, and socially adept.

Since 1997, the Alliance for Catholic Urban Education (ACUE) has been working with the urban community to ensure that our children within the inner-city areas of our diocese continue to have access to a Catholic education. The five urban grade schools – Holy Cross, Holy Trinity, Prince of Peace, St. Anthony, and St. Augustine – are a vital ministry of the diocese and provide an exemplary Christ-centered moral and academic education to their students.

In 2007, Bishop Foys linked the urban elementary schools under the ACUE Consortium. The Consortium performs administrative and financial functions in order to prevent duplication of expenses, to produce greater efficiency and to study and recommend best educational practices.

You can make a donation by dropping the ACUE envelope in the basket during the regular collection. Your generosity is greatly appreciated!

2025 DPAA – July Update

As a reminder our parish goal is $57,600. So far, our parish pledges total $66,295. This year, the amount raised above our goal will go towards replacing the school roof. Thank you for your faithful stewardship. God bless you for your generosity!
