Parish News

This coming Tuesday, August 6, we celebrate the feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. The Gospel reading that day tells us about this event, when Jesus led Peter, James, and John to a mountaintop and revealed to them a vision of His glory, which is usually hidden from our eyes. The Lord did this in order to strengthen the Apostles for the trials that lay ahead, so that in their moments of fear and doubt they might remember this brief glimpse of the power and majesty of God and be strengthened to persevere in their faith. And this feast is meant to serve the same purpose for us. In the moments of our lives when we're called to carry the Cross, we can turn our minds and hearts to the beauty of the Transfigured Christ and remember that the glory revealed in Him is our destiny too, that we are called to share His life and see Him face-to-face for all eternity. Let's pray that we might never lose sight of that, so that we can walk with Christ faithfully in this life and one day say with St. Peter in God's Kingdom, "Lord, it is good that we are here."

Fr. Stenger
