Parish News

Thank you to everyone who helped make our Oktoberfish a success once again! Our little parish certainly punches above its weight whenever we put on an event and that's because of all of you. So many people help in so many ways: the kitchen, the fry room, the parking lot, the phones, the money-counters, the runners, the people taking orders, the advertising, the classroom and cafeteria workers, the people who help set up beforehand and clean up afterwards—the list could just keep going! I'm especially grateful to Karen and Dave Schadler for carrying the responsibility of coordinating our fish fries and to our Pre-K teachers and staff, who are so understanding and flexible when it comes to rearranging their rooms and getting them put back together again. It's the work of many hands, so thanks to all. Please join us again in Lent!

Next weekend will be the annual collection for the Seminarian Education Fund. This annual diocesan collection helps to support the formation and education of our future priests. These men are willing to spend their lives in service to the Lord and to us, so I hope that we can be generous in showing them our support and gratitude next weekend. You should have an envelope for this collection that you can drop in the basket at the usual time—or you can just use an envelope of your own and write “Seminarian Education Fund” on the outside. Thank you for your support of our seminarians!
